CAUSE

On August 31, 2006, Jarett J. Elm was sentenced to one day imprisonment (time served) and placed on four years supervised release. Among other special conditions, he was ordered to perform 200 hours of community service. On March 4, 2008, Mr. Elm reported to the U.S. Probation Office and inquired if his community service condition could be modified for him to pay a fine. He is employed full-time and in February 2008, he became a new father. On his days off, he is needed to provide for the care of his infant daughter and unable to perform community service. He stated that he now has the ability to pay a fine.

Mr. Elm completed drug treatment and drug testing on September 5, 2006, submitted to DNA collection on September 13, 2006, and paid his special assessment fee on September 22, 2006. He remains compliant with his other conditions of supervised release.

To date, Mr. Elm has performed 126 hours of community service and has a balance of 74 hours. Based upon the prevailing Federal minimum wage of $5.85 effective January 1, 2008, this Probation Officer suggests that the court impose a fine in the amount of $432.90 in lieu of performing the balance of his community service.

Attached is Probation Form 49, Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Probation/Supervised Release or Extend Term of Supervision, with Mr. Elm's consent to the modification.
